Privacy notice

The 1997 California Practices Act requires UC Davis to provide the following information to individuals asked to supply information about themselves.

UC Davis is requesting this information to maintain accurate donor files in the Office of Development and Alumni Relations. Furnishing the information is strictly voluntary and it will be maintained confidentially. The information may be used by other University departments in the regular course of business but will not be disseminated to others except if required by law. You have the right to review your own data file. Inquiries should be forwarded to the Director of Administrative Services, University Relations, 1460 Drew Avenue, Suite 130, Davis, CA 95616.

Donor's Consent

The University is grateful for the support it receives from friends and alumni. One of the ways our appreciation is expressed is through listing the names of donors in relevant publications. Should you wish to exclude your name from donor lists, please notify us if you have not already done so.

The UC Davis Foundation is a non-profit, public benefit corporation organized for the purpose of encouraging voluntary private support for the benefit of UC Davis and is recognized under federal and state tax laws as a qualified donee for tax-deductible charitable contributions. Responsibility for governance of the Foundation, including investments, is vested in its Board of Trustees, which is composed of community leaders and senior campus administrators.

It is the policy of the University of California, Davis to utilize a portion of the short-term investment income on current gifts and grants to support the cost of raising and administering funds.
